Hospitality Management Hosts Eta Sigma Delta Honor Society Induction Ceremony

BIG RAPIDS – Eight distinguished Ferris State University Hospitality Management majors were inducted into the Eta Sigma Delta International Hospitality Management Honor Society during a ceremony hosted in Big Rapids on Tuesday, Jan. 28.

The eight inductees were:

Kelsey Beson of Pinconning
Courtney Bingham of Marquette
Erika Brinks of Cadillac
Sarah Comstock of Greenville
Neil Haney of Manton
Timothy Mulligan of Allenton
Breanna Schmanski of Alpena
Tayler Seroke of South Haven

The ceremony's keynote speaker was Jim Holton, chairman of the Michigan Restaurant Association. Holton, who is also owner of the Mountain Town Station Brewing Company and Steakhouse, Camille's on the River, the Mt. Pleasant Brewing Company and the Alma Brewing Company, addressed the inductees and their guests. Holton shared his personal story of entrepreneurial success in hospitality and in the restaurant industry.

Qualifications for induction into the ESD IHMS include a grade point average of 3.0 or higher, junior-level status or higher and an agreement to uphold the values of creativity, ethics, excellence, leadership and service.
