UPDATE: Sunday, Feb.23 at 9:10 p.m.

Officers from the Big Rapids and Ferris State University departments of public safety arrested a suspect late this afternoon (Sunday, Feb. 23) in connection with a stabbing incident that occurred early Sunday morning. As a result of the ongoing investigation into the stabbing, police officers learned that the incident took place on campus in a Ferris residence hall where the suspect and the victim, both Ferris students who are acquainted with each other, live.

The suspect, who was arrested without incident, is currently being held in the Mecosta County Jail. While the suspect is now in custody, the investigation into the stabbing is ongoing.

The suspect will be arraigned on Monday afternoon, Feb. 24, at which time bond will be set.
