EU features acoustic artist Nick Motil during Game Show Series

BIG RAPIDS – As part of the 2007 Game Show Series, Entertainment Unlimited welcomes musician Nick Motil as this year’s The Price is Right host. Motil will host the game show and perform an acoustic set for students from 7 to 9 p.m. on Sept. 26 in G. Mennen Williams Auditorium.

One of the highest booked acts of the National Association of College Activities, Motil’s music shares the spotlight with artists such as The Verve Pipe, Everclear and The Calling. Living by his philosophy of “No managers, no label, no shoes, no problem,” Motil has found success due to his own hard work and help from friends and family.

In three years, Motil has released three albums and sold more than 5,000 copies. His albums include, “My Life,” “My Dreams,” and his most recent, “One of These Days.” Motil’s humor on stage makes the audience feel at home, and according to him, “Everything’s better barefoot,” which is how he performs every show.
