Dear Editor/News Director:

Students at Ferris State University are continuing MLK Week activities with two high school presentations during which they will discuss the life and work of Martin Luther King Jr. with students at Big Rapids High School and Crossroads Charter Academy.

Involved on Ferris' campus through a number of Registered Student Organizations, these students wish to engage local high school students to expand awareness of the slain civil rights leader's vision.

Media are invited to attend either presentation. Please contact Leah Nixon, assistant director of News Services, at (231) 591-5604 for further information.
