Robert Love III receives Outstanding Leader Award

BIG RAPIDS – Robert Love III of Adrian received the Ferris State University Honors program Outstanding Leader Award. A 2004 graduate of Blissfield High School, Love is now a senior in the pre-dentistry program in the College of Arts and Sciences.

Love earned the award for his various leadership roles on campus and in the community. He is a member of the Residence Hall Association, president of the National Residence Hall Honorary and serves as a desk services manager.

He is also the five-star chair for Phi Sigma Kappa, secretary for the Student Leadership and Activities advisory council, a member of the pre-dentistry club, and was voted the 2007 Homecoming King.
