Conference Schedule: The conference will be held Thursday, September 24 and Friday, September 25, 2015. The Conference at a Glance schedule has been updated to reflect the new CE (see Appendix A).

CE Courses: Holly Burt from the GMR has withdrawn her CE from the conference. In its place, Beth Layton, Director of the GMR, has assured the committee that someone will be available to teach the Measuring What Matters to Stakeholders CE, but has yet to provide the name of the instructor after following up several times. The other CEs are as follows:

- Community Engagement 101: The Art of Building Community Partnerships by Deborah Charbonneau (WSU) for 4 CEs.
- Emerging Technologies for the Busy Librarian by Gabriel Rios (Indiana University School of Medicine) and Melissa DeSantis (University of Colorado Denver) for 4 CEs.
- Instructional Design: Proven Principles and Practices for Librarians Who Teach – Joey Nicholson (New York University) for 4 CEs.

Scholarships: Andrea Kepsel is heading up scholarships this year. All scholarships have been translated from Word Documents into Google Forms to make the submission and review process easier for the committee and the applicants.
- Student Scholarships: The committee received two applicants for the student scholarships, which were awarded to: LaTeesa James and Wesleyann Johnson, both Wayne State students.
- Member Scholarships and Diane LeBar Scholarship: The application period will be June 1 – 30, 2015. Two scholarships are also available for members: 1) new member scholarship who has never attended the conference and 2) member scholarship that covers either the cost of hotel OR conference registration. The Diane LeBar Scholarship will be available to hospital librarians.

Posters & Speed Dating: The committee will be sending out calls for posters and speed dating topics sometime in June with deadlines in July.

Respectfully submitted,
Stephanie Swanberg & Andrea Kepsel
