Rankin Gallery hosts faculty exhibit

BIG RAPIDS – The Rankin Art Gallery staff is proud to present the works of Ferris and Kendall College of Art and Design art faculty through Dec. 9. The Faculty Exhibit rotates on a yearly basis between the Kendall and Ferris campuses.

The two campuses join together to support the creativity and continued exploration of the artists' craft. Gallery Director Carrie Weis feels this is an inspiring way to reach the students of both Ferris and Kendall.

“This is a wonderful way for our students to see what we create outside of the classroom, as well as give them the opportunity to view an assortment of media, style and concepts.”

Added Robert Barnum, artist in residence at the Big Rapids campus, “This is the most important show of the year presenting, on credible ground, our most gifted faculty.”

Please join us in celebrating the accomplishments of Ferris and Kendall's art faculty. The exhibit is free and open to the public. Gallery hours are 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. Contact Weis at 591-2536 for further information.

CAPTIONS – (Photo 1) “Volcano Soup” by Molly Alicki Corriveau, Kendall College of Art and Design associate professor.
