Local student receives Heart and Soul Award

BIG RAPIDS – Elizabeth Block of Tinley Park, recently received the Michigan Campus Compact Heart and Soul Award. A 2005 graduate of Providence Catholic High School, Block is a junior majoring in Hotel, Restaurant and Food Industry Management at Ferris State University.

Every year, MCC awards students based on their dedication and commitment to community service. Awardees are selected from a nomination pool of nearly 600 students. Given to two undergraduate students at each school, the Heart and Soul Award is given to a candidate to recognize their time, effort and personal commitment through service.
