BIG RAPIDS – Sarah Boruta has been recognized by the Ferris State University Honors Program as being an outstanding member of the cohort for above and beyond performance, and for making a difference in the Ferris/Big Rapids community. Sarah received recognition and a certificate at the bi-annual Honors Program Awards Night on October 14, 2005.

The award winners are selected based on peer nominations and faculty input, and are the honored guests, along with their parents, at this Board of Trustees sponsored event.

Thank you for your time and consideration.
