Tots Raise Money for St. Jude Children's Hospital

BIG RAPIDS – What better way can Tot's Place campers and preschoolers find to raise money for a good cause while at the same time enjoy one of summer's most popular pastimes? Combining the two, children from the Bulldog Summer Camp and preschool class from the child development center at Ferris State University hosted a St. Jude Trike-A-Thon and raised $299 for the children's research hospital. This is the third year Tot's Place has coordinated such an event for its campers, with the preschoolers joining in for the first time this year. Pictured, Ferris Department of Public Safety Officer Joy Paquette speaks with youngsters about bike safety.
