From Coffee to Football, Ferris Has Something for Everyone This Saturday

BIG RAPIDS – Looking for something to do this Saturday, Sept. 13? The campus of Ferris State University will be buzzing, so grab your coat and go.

Start your day at the renovated ice arena, then grab a cup of Joe at the grand opening of Starbucks. Follow that up by satiating your appetite with some BBQ and Blues, and top it all off with a game of football at Top Taggart Field.

- * The Grand Re-opening of the Ferris Ice Arena is from 11 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. and will include on-ice demonstrations and free skating. Visit www.ferris.edu/icearena for more information.
- * The Grand Opening of Starbucks, located in the Ferris Interdisciplinary Resource Center Connector, is at 3 p.m. Visit with staff and get a free coffee beverage.
- * BBQ and Blues begins at 4 p.m. Enjoy some of the area's finest all-you-can-eat BBQ while listening to a live performance by renowned Grand Rapids Blues artist Big Daddy and the Krewe. Cost is $5 for students, $7 for adults and children under 10 eat free. All proceeds will be donated for the creation of student scholarships.
- * Watch the Bulldogs take on Findlay during their home opener at 7 p.m.
