Ferris Hosts Job Fair Feb. 5

BIG RAPIDS – Update your resume and iron your suit. Career Services of Ferris State University is hosting its 2009 Spring Job Fair from noon to 4 p.m. Feb. 5 at the Ewigleben Sports Complex.

Angie Roman, coordinator of Career Services, said the 50 companies scheduled to attend the job fair are looking to fill full-time and internship openings.

Some of the companies scheduled to attend include Amway Corp., Gentex Corp., Hilton Hotels Corp., Kiewit, Rockford Construction Co., Seaman’s Air Conditioning and Refrigeration, Spectrum Health, and U.S. Border Patrol.

“It is a great opportunity for students of all academic levels to begin the networking process and to learn more about potential opportunities,” Roman said. “The job fair is open to anyone who is seeking or has a degree.”

According to Roman, students should approach employers with a smile, handshake and a 10 to 15-second introduction. Students should dress professionally, and also bring several copies of their resume.

There are many companies that will conduct interviews Thursday evening and Friday. Students can sign-up through eRecruiting on Career Services’ Web site prior to the job fair, Roman added.

She also noted important tips for students. “Students should be researching the employers they are most interested in talking with. Students should not, however, stop from talking with all the employers at the job fair, as they may have opportunities available in the future.”
