VIII. Announcements

President Eisler thanked Senators for their year of hard work and dedication. He reminded Senators of the Service Awards Dessert Luncheon at 3 p.m. in at the Holiday Inn. He reported that many classrooms will be repaired and that a computer replacement approach will be reviewed. Although it is difficult to say where the State budget is, it appears that Ferris will receive a $956,000 cut in its funding and there will likely be a tuition increase for fall 2005-2006.

Vice President Michael Harris thanked the Senate for working together for the betterment of Ferris. He reminded Senators that he would be hosting a "Table Topics" lunch at noon on Wednesday in the Centennial Dining Room, Rankin Center. On Thursday, April 28, there will be a divisional lunch in the Granger Building Atrium, beginning at 11:30, with a presentation at 12:30.

President Dakkuri thanked Senators for their hard work this year. He reported that he has enjoyed leading the group and is happy with the success they have achieved together. He continued by stating that there are challenges to be faced and as a group the Senate will work together to find solutions.
