

Presidential State of the Union Address

This Wednesday, March 1st 2006, join us at 7:30PM in the Rankin Center Dome Room for this semester's State of The Union Address. The Student Government President of Ferris State University Jon Gaskell will review the state of the student government, as well as outline goals and progress thus far. A question and answers session will follow after. It promises to be an informative evening. Be there - and make your voice heard!
