Ferris students coordinate can drive for local charities

BIG RAPIDS – The Ferris State University Association of Future Educators and Kappa Delta Pi International Honor Society are organizing Operation Cans from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. April 21.

Operation cans is a can and bottle drive designed to raise funds for the Mecosta-Osceola United Way and Project Starburst. Cans and bottles may be dropped off on Morrison Avenue across the street from Burger King. Volunteers will collect and recycle all can and bottle donations.

For more information, contact Angie Robbins at fsuafe@aol.com. Robbins serves as president of both organizations.
