Subject: List of highlighted events taking place this week at Ferris State University
Date: 04/06/2010 03:25 PM

Good afternoon,

I wanted to take the time to make you aware of some of the events that will be taking place on Ferris State University's campus this week. Below you will see a partial list highlighting some of the events taking place on campus this week in Big Rapids. This listing is taken from the Campus Calendar (the link to the Campus Calendar is provided below).

We would like to welcome you to campus to attend and cover these events. If you have any questions or are in need of any assistance, please feel free to contact me.

Tuesday, April 6, 2010

True Stories: Being an American Muslim: Dr. Mukhtar will give an African American testimony of why he converted from Christianity to Islam, as well as highlighting the differences in the faiths that he has encountered.

The event is from 6 to 7 p.m. in IRC 120

Wednesday, April 7, 2010

Michigan Energy Conference: MEC returns to Ferris on April 7-8 on the Big Rapids campus. Anyone interested in a comprehensive schedule for the conference should visit the official Web site, here. In addition to hosting the Michigan Energy Conference, Ferris also is home to the Energy Center. Through the Energy Center, Ferris works to "initiate, facilitate and support the dialogue and innovation necessary to ensure Michigan a bright, promising future."
