Ferris State University is hosting a grand opening ceremony for the Jim Crow Museum of Racist Memorabilia on Thursday, April 26 in Big Rapids, Mich. In anticipation of potentially a large number of media members (local, state, national and possibly international), we are asking our media partners to RSVP to provide ideal parking for media on campus for this historic event. We strongly encourage media to attend this event as part of their coverage and we look forward to accommodating your efforts in any way possible.

We recently published a press release on the official grand opening of the Jim Crow Museum, and that can be found, here:

Please RSVP as soon as possible and we would be happy to add you to our media list to ensure you're taken care of and that we can make every effort possible to supply you with information and arrange interviews upon request.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask.

Thanks.
