Haveman re-appointed Ferris board of trustees vice chair

BIG RAPIDS – James K. Haveman Jr. of Grand Haven was re-appointed vice chair of the Ferris State University board of trustees during an annual meeting of the board July 14. Haveman was named to the board to serve a term from Jan. 1, 2003, to Dec. 31, 2010.

A long-time health care executive for the state of Michigan, Haveman is currently with the Haveman Group. He previously served as director of the Michigan Department of Community Health since April 1996. Prior to that, he was director of the Michigan Department of Mental Health. He received the National Governors' Association Distinguished Service award in July 1997 and in May 2000 received the Distinguished Alumni Award from Calvin College
