MICHIGAN HEALTH SCIENCES LIBRARIES ASSOCIATION

BYLAWS

(Revised 1989)

ARTICLE I. Name

The name of this non-profit unincorporated organization shall be the Michigan Health Sciences Libraries Association.

ARTICLE II. Purpose

The purpose of the Michigan Health Sciences Libraries Association is to promote improved health sciences library service and the establishment of new health sciences libraries in Michigan in accordance with professional standards; to inspire and educate health science library personnel; to implement the exchange of health sciences library material and services; and to foster communication between various health sciences library groups within the State, region, and nation.

ARTICLE III. Membership

Section 1. Classes

There shall be two categories of membership, personal members and institutional members.

Section 2. Eligibility

- A. Personal members shall be persons who are interested in health sciences libraries.
- B. Institutional members shall be health sciences libraries or libraries in allied fields. The authorized representative of an institutional member shall be designated in writing by the institution at the time of payment of dues, but may be transferred during the year upon written notification.

Section 3. Rights and Privileges

- A. Personal members are eligible :
 - 1. To vote
 - 2. To hold office, chair and serve on committees
 - 3. To receive the newsletter and Membership Directory

4. To receive reduced conference rates

B. Institutional members are eligible :

1. To one vote for the designated Institutional representative
2. To have the designated Institutional representative appointed to committees
3. To receive the newsletter and Membership Directory and a copy of the Technology Directory and Hospital Survey when published
4. To participate in DOCLINE without additional MHSLA fees.
5. To receive reduced conference rates for the designated Institutional representative

ARTICLE IV. Fees and Dues

Section 1. Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Association shall be November 1 to October 31.

Section 2. Membership Year

The membership year of the Association shall be the calendar year.

Section 3. Dues

The dues shall be determined by simple majority vote in a mail ballot or at the Annual Business Meeting after discussion and amendment of proposed dues by the Executive Board. Annual dues shall be payable on presentation of a notice by the Treasurer at the beginning of each fiscal year.

Section 4. Cessation of Membership

A. Second Notice

If dues are unpaid by February 1st, a second notice will be sent.

B. Loss of Membership

If dues are unpaid by March 1st, the dues shall be considered in arrears and without further notice the Member shall lose the rights and privileges of membership.

C. Reinstatement of Membership

Upon payment of dues for the current calendar year, the Member shall regain the rights and privileges of membership for that year.

Section 5. Special Assessments

In the event that additional monies are needed above and beyond the annual dues, the Executive Board may request a special assessment. The rationale for the assessment shall be presented to the membership who will then vote by mail on the assessment. A simple majority will determine the outcome.

ARTICLE V. Officers

Section 1. Election and terms of Officers

The Association shall have four elected officers; President, President-Elect, Secretary, and Treasurer. The elected officers of the Association are also the officers of the Board.

A. Nominations

The elected officers of the organization shall be nominated and elected as provided in this Article and Article VIII of these Bylaws. The term of office shall be one year for the President and for the President-Elect. The term of office shall be two years for the Secretary and for the Treasurer.

B. Term of Office

Elected officers, with the exception of the Treasurer whose term of office shall run concurrent with the fiscal year, shall take office at the close of the Annual Business Meeting following their election and shall serve, unless unable to complete their term of office, until the end of the Annual Business Meeting held at the close of their term of office; or until their successors have been duly chosen and shall have assumed their duties. A Member must wait one year from the end of an elected term of office before again being eligible to serve as an officer.

C. Succession to Office of President

At the end of the current President's term of office the President-Elect immediately becomes President.

D. Removal from Office

If at such a time it is established that the incumbent officer, appointed or elected, shall be incapable of performing their obligations, the Board shall be responsible for removing that person from office.

1. Reason for removal

a. Compulsory removal. Charges must be filed with the Secretary of the Association.

1) Failure to attend two (2) consecutive unexcused meetings.

2) Change of residence making performance of duties impossible.

3) Illness which precludes performance of duties.

4) Conduct which is contrary to the best interests of the Association.

b. Any Association member may bring charges against a Board Member. The charges must be in writing and filed with the Secretary of the Association.

D. Removal from Office (cont)

2. Due Process

The Board shall investigate the charges and schedule a hearing. The officer shall be furnished with a copy of the charges and shall be notified by registered or certified mail at least 30 days in advance of the date of the hearing. A two-thirds vote of the membership of the Board shall be necessary for the removal from office.

3. Appeal may be addressed to the general membership in the form of a written petition. The decision may be reversed by signatures of 51% of the membership within thirty (30) days.

Section 2. Vacancies

A. Vacancy in office of President

A vacancy arising in the office of President shall be filled by the President-Elect who shall cease to be President-Elect, serve out the unexpired one-year term of President, and continue as President for the full succeeding one-year term to which he or she was elected.

B. Vacancy in office of President-Elect

A vacancy arising in the office of President-Elect shall be filled by a vote of the Executive Board for the remainder of that year.

C. Vacancy in Office of Secretary or Treasurer

A vacancy during the first year of the term of offices of Secretary or Treasurer shall be filled by a member of the Executive Board determined by a vote of the Executive Board. The area group whose representative is chosen to fill the vacancy shall select a replacement who shall serve out the remainder to the originally selected representative's term of office. (Area groups may petition the Executive Board for an exception.) In conjunction with the elections in the fall, a new treasurer or secretary will be elected to fill out the remaining term of office. If the vacancy during the second year of office shall be filled by a member of the Executive Board determined by a vote of the Executive Board. Elections shall be held as normal in the fall.
